

Unchained worlds: Basic Edition

All is created by all. I typed these rules up on a computer, but so many people have made this possible, from inspiration to those who provided the food, shelter, electricity, education, healthcare, mentoring, spare time, and life experiences. A special shoutout to my infinitely supportive wife, my best friend, and the various players and GMs who've collaborated with me over the years.

How to use this book

If you're a player, these rules will provide you with a set of mechanics to create a player character and play through a campaign run by your table's keeper. The keeper will be responsible for providing arcane spells, magic names, additional items, monsters, non-player characters, quests, and locations that you will appear in the campaign's game world.

If you're a keeper, please consult the keeper's guide for lists of premade assets as well as advice on creating and running your own campaigns.

Abilities

As a player, the keeper may ask you to make checks or saves to decide the outcome of an action. This entails rolling a D20 and adding any relevant modifiers, bonuses, or bonus dice. The sum of the roll is compared with a target number, a difficulty class(DC). If it meets or beats the DC, your check or save is successful.

Abilities

STrength: Lift, climb, carry, grapple, throw

DEXterity: Sprint, jump, duck, sneak, aim

CONstitution: Take hits, resist harm

INTelligence: Remember, reason, calculate

WISdom: Sense, intuit, resist influence

Ability scores and modifiers

An ability score is a number from 1-20 which represents one of a character's abilities and is used to calculate the modifier applied to said character's ability checks. The modifier for each ability score is shown in the table below.

Score	Modifier
20	+5
18-19	+4
16-17	+3
14-15	+2
12-13	+1
10-11	0
8-9	-1
6-7	-2
4-5	-3
2-3	-4
1	-5

Note: No ability score may be increased higher than 20. If an ability score is decreased below 1, the effected creature dies.

Other Stats

Armor Class

Armor class is the number an attack roll must meet or beat to deal damage. The higher it is, the harder it is for attacks to hit. A character's armor class defaults to 10+DEX when they are unarmored.

Taking Damage

Hit Points

A character's hit points(HP) represent their physical condition, and are reduced by taking damage. A character's maximum HP is equal to their CON score.

Temporary Hit Points

Temporary hit points(THP) represent some buffer from real damage such as a magical aura or the effects of a potion. Incoming damage reduces THP first, then regular HP. THP does not stack. If you gain THP, you may replace your current amount of THP with the amount gained, but you cannot add both values together. Unless otherwise specified, THP expires after completing a rest.

Injuries

Each time you take damage, if you are left with less than 1 HP you must roll on the injury table below. Roll 3d6. If your HP is negative, subtract it from the value you rolled.

Injury Table(3d6-HP)

18: Get back up!
15-17: Dazed(-3 to all rolls for an hour)
10-14: Minor Injury
7-9: Major Injury
5-6: Dire injury. You're bleeding out!
4: Unconscious. You're bleeding out!
3 or lower: Death

Minor Injury(D4)

1. Strained wrist
2. Strained ankle
3. Throw your back out
4. The wind is knocked out of you.
Two less actions each turn for one minute.

Major Injury(D4)

1. Broken arm
2. Broken leg
3. Broken ribs
4. Concussion(-1 to all rolls until healed)

Dire Injury(D4)

1. Severed arm
2. Severed leg
3. Lose an eye
4. Internal organ damage

You're Bleeding Out!

If you roll a dire injury or unconsciousness on the injury table, you'll begin bleeding out. Until your bleeding stops, roll on the bleeding out table below. Roll 3d6 and subtract your current HP. A DC 15 medicine check can stop your bleeding. Magical healing, or that from a healer's kit, stops bleeding if it raises your HP to 1 or higher.

Bleeding Out Table(3d6-HP)

18: Wound stops bleeding
11-7: -1 HP
5-10: -2 HP
4: Unconscious
3: Death

You're injured. Now what?

- Have a friend treat it(medicine skill)
- Pay a professional healer
- Pray to your deity(religion skill)
- Use some powerful healing magic

Note: Injuries may cause certain actions to have penalties, risk further harm, or become impossible.

Combat

Initiative

In a combat, the combatants on the same side of the conflict act simultaneously. To decide which side goes first, each side rolls a D6 and the highest roll takes the first turn in initiative.

Actions

Each round in initiative represents six seconds, and each task taken is described as an action. Each character may perform up to three actions per round. The following are actions.

Offensive Actions

- Attack: Make an attack roll against an enemy, drawing your weapon from an accessible spot such as a quiver, belt, or sheath if need be.
- Second Attack: Carries a -3 penalty to hit
- Third Attack: Carries a -6 penalty to hit
- Power Up: Grant a D6 bonus to your next attack roll this round
- Grapple Target: Make a STR check against the target's STR or DEX to

Misc Actions

- Move: Move up to 30ft
- Hide: If you have broken line of sight, make a DC 12 DEX save to become hidden from them
- Interact: Open a door, pick up a rock, push a boulder, retrieve or stash an item from your inventory, etc
- Speak: Relay a message no more than 6 seconds long

Making Attacks

Roll a D20 and add your STR(for melee) or DEX(for ranged) mod. If any other bonuses(such as from a perk) or penalties(such as from making a second attack), apply them to your roll. If the roll meets or beats the enemy's armor class, the attack hits and you may roll the attack damage, which is decided by the weapon. Unarmed attacks deal D2 damage.

Perks

Perks are awarded by the keeper according to the rules of the campaign, such as a reward for completing objectives.

Perk: Unarmed

When you select this perk, you may use DEX to make unarmed attacks.

Each time you select the unarmed perk, roll on the table below.

2d6	Effect
1-2
2	A successful grapple deals unarmed damage
3	Unarmed attacks deal D2 more damage
4-7	+1 to unarmed attacks

11	+D6 to your AC against one attack once per rest
12	No penalty on second or third unarmed attack

Perk: Minor Weapons

When you select the minor weapons perk, you may use DEX for attacks with sharp minor weapons and may throw minor weapons up to 20 feet.

Each time you select this perk, roll on the table below.

2d6	Effect
1-2
2	D6 bonus to backstabbing damage
3	Add a D6 to minor attack or damage once per rest
4-7	+1 to minor weapon attacks
8-10	+2 to either STR, DEX, or CON, or +1 to two
11	Second attack with minor weapon has no penalty
12	Dual wield to roll damage twice and pick highest

Perk: Ranged Weapons

Each time you select the ranged weapons perk, roll on the table below.

2d6	Effect
1-2
2	Use two actions for a D6 bonus to range attack
3	Add a D6 to ranged damage once per rest
4-8	+1 to ranged weapon attacks
9-10	+2 to either DEX or WIS, or +1 to both
11	Add a D6 to ranged attack once per rest

2	Two-handed attacks deal D10 damage
3	Add a D6 to martial attack or damage once per rest
4-8	+1 to martial weapon attacks
9-10	+2 to either STR or CON, or +1 to both
11	When wielding martial weapon two-handed, +1 AC

2	Overkill damage spreads to adjacent enemies
3	Add a D12 to great attack or damage once per rest
4-8	+1 to great weapon attacks
9-10	+2 to either STR or CON, or +1 to both
11	Once per rest, take half damage for D6 turns
12	May reroll great weapon damage, using second roll

Perk: Arcane Magic

Each time you select the arcane magic perk, you gain one spell tattoo and roll on the table below.

2d6	Effect
2	Create your own spell tattoo
3	+D6 to spellcasting DC once per rest
4-8	+1 to arcane spellcasting bonus
9-10	+2 to INT or CON or +1 to both
11	Gain 3 spell tattoos
12	Copying spells costs 5gp of arcane ink

Using Arcane Magic

You may use an action to prepare a spell, and another action to cast it. You may not prepare multiple spells at once. After a spell has been cast, it becomes exhausted until you finish a rest. You may prepare an exhausted spell by drawing energy from your body, dealing D4 damage to you.

Your spellcasting mod is your INT mod + spellcasting bonus. Your spell DC is 10+INT.

Spell Tattoos

Each time you select the arcane magic perk, you may either choose from the list of common spells below, or select one of three random spells provided by the keeper. Such a spell is magically tattooed onto your body and requires no materials to use. An active spell tattoo glows faintly, but an exhausted spell tattoo is completely dim.

Copying Spells

You may expend 10GP worth of arcane ink to copy a spell that you have a copy of (such as a tattoo or spell scroll) onto an object made of stone, wood, or paper. A typical arcane mage keeps one copy of each spell in a book, then creates runestones and spell scrolls for casting purposes. In desperation, some mages may cast the last copy of a spell by ripping it from their spellbook. Casting a copied spell destroys the object the spell is written on.

Common Spells

Flame hand: 15 foot cone of flame, DEX save to halve 3d6 DMG

Summon weasels: Swarm of 2d4 weasels materialize for 1 hour, follow orders, 1HP each.

Fly: For 10 minutes, you may fly (30ft per action)

Shield: +5 AC for one round, triggered when next attack would otherwise hit you. Dispell after a rest.

Sleep: Up to 6 targets succeed CON save or fall asleep for 1 hour

Green Flame: Conjure green fire in a 5ft cube for 1 hour. DEX save to halve 2d6 DMG for those inside.

Magic Missile: Three spectral darts automatically hit up to three targets, dealing D4 DMG each

Light: Touch an object or creature. It produces 30ft of light for 1 hour.

Telepathy: Send and receive messages others using your mind for one hour, ignoring language barriers.

Perk: Pact Magic

Each time you select this perk, roll on the table below.

2d6	Effect
2	Gain a once per rest power from patron
3	Add a D6 to a spell damage once per rest
4-8	+1 to pact spellcasting bonus
9-10	+2 to WIS or CHA or +1 to both
11	Add a D6 to spell healing once per rest
12	Gain a permanent benefit from patron

Using Pact Magic

Select a patron, a powerful magical entity such as a divine or nature spirit who grants your powers. You may use an action to cast a spell. When you do, make a spellcasting check (WIS) and add your pact magic spellcasting bonus if you have one. The DC is decided by the spell. If you fail, the spell becomes exhausted and may not be cast again until you complete a request from the patron. You may use an action to charge a spell, granting a D6 spellcasting bonus on the next spell cast the same turn.

Praying for Spells

During a rest, you may pray for a spell, describing it with two words such as "Healing Word" and roll on the table below. The keeper creates a spell to fit the patron and roll. You may replace a spell if it is not exhausted.

2d6	DC	Title
2	8	Cantrip
3-6	10	Weak
7-9	12	Average
10-11	15	Strong
12	17	Expert

Perk: Naming Magic

Each time you select the naming magic perk, roll on the table below.

2d6	Effect
2	Consume materials to gain +5 to spell check
3	Add a D6 to a spell check once per rest
4-8	+1 to naming spellcasting bonus
9-10	+2 to CHA or WIS or +1 to both
11	Expend 1 CON to create a spell scroll
12	Create your own name at no cost

Using naming magic

During a rest, you may expend 1 CON to learn a magic word. You may use an action to cast a spell. To do so, select one or more names and describe to the keeper, who will assign a DC for a spell check (CHA). You may use your action to charge the next spell cast the same turn, granting a D6 spellcasting bonus. If you roll a 1 on the D20, your spell automatically fails in a catastrophic way.

Perk: Skill Dice

Each time you select the skill dice perk, you may gain a skill die for a new skill and roll on the table below. You may have a total number of skill dice equal to your INT modifier (minimum 1).

2d6	Effect
2	Learn a new language of your choice
3-5	+2 to INT, WIS, or CHA or +1 to 2
6-9	Increase the size of one skill die
10-11	Roll max value of skill die once per rest
12	Gain a once/rest ability based on one skill

Using Skill Dice

Anyone may perform any skill as they would perform any other action, with the keeper requesting ability checks when appropriate. If you have a skill die, you may roll and add it to ability checks leveraging your knowledge of that skill. Your skill die begins as a D6, but may grow (D6->D8->D12->D20) as a result of selecting this perk.

Complex Skills

Religion

Recalling Lore

Recall the lore of divines, undead, fiends, fey, and other extra-planar beings. This may assist you in knowing what rituals are applicable to a given being.

Crafting

Determine a crafting recipe

You may be able to determine more simple crafting recipes with a single check. Others, however, may require days of research working on a prototype from materials. A completed prototype renders an inferior prototype version of an item as well as a crafting recipe. A crafting recipe has a DC, a list of materials, and a rough crafting time.

Craft an item

Attempting to craft an item consumes the materials and some time. Upon a success (check decided by keeper), the item is created.

Repair an item

A successful crafting check reveals if an item can be repaired, any materials needed, time, and a DC. By consuming the time and materials, a repair may be attempted. Upon a failure of 5+, the broken item is destroyed beyond repair.

Harvesting

A successful crafting check will reveal any valuable crafting materials such as fur, hide, bone, scales, carapace, teeth, claws, resin, wood, or bark that can be harvested from a creature, plant, or object. These materials may be used in recipes, sold in their raw form, or be crafted into a value-added item such as a necklace or leather. A crafting check may be used to successfully harvest

Alchemy

Brewing takes place over the course of a rest and requires relevant equipment.

Brew a tincture

Brewing a single alchemical ingredient with an alchemy check renders a tincture, which may fill flasks or vials. One flask, or four vials constitute a full dose that will render an alchemical effect.

Brew a potion

When brewing a potion, one combines multiple tinctures or other potions with a specific aim. One makes an alchemy check (Keeper provides DC based on complexity). The resulting potion has the same volume as the tinctures and potions that were used to make it. If the potion brewing fails, it becomes inert liquid.

Medicine

Create Medicine

By consuming one medicinal ingredient and 10 minutes, one may attempt to create one of the following items, making a medicine (INT) check:

- (DC 15) Ointment: Heals D4 HP, provided target has half or more of their max HP. Expires after one day.
- (DC 20) Purifying salve: Removes one poison-related condition, masks an active illness's symptoms
- (DC 20) Healer's kit: Takes 1 minute to heal D6, up to half HP. Single use.
- (DC 20) Smelling Salt: wake an unconscious creature back to 1HP
- (DC 25) Advanced healer's kit: Healer's kit, but heals 2d6 HP

Field Medicine

Attempt to place a splint on a broken limb, resuscitate someone who is not breathing, or stop severe bleeding. The DC is determined according to the situation, and is significantly lowered if you consume a healer's kit when practicing field medicine.

Character Creation

World of Crucible

History

The divines created the world, Bimros creating the Bimrans in his image, and Uaos creating the Beastfolk. This divine age ended when a war of the gods broke out, leading to a holy exodus. Following that time, Dragons, Titans, and the Empire of Man each took their turns reigning over the world.

The fractured kingdoms of the current age struggle with one another, but also the tide of chaos. Mutations are surprisingly common even within cities. The wilderness swarms with monsters.
